PADRE SERRA SAYS:

Whether you are in eight grade, high school or college, this is “decision time.” This is a great opportunity to develop your gifts and talents. So, work hard, do and be your best. Shape your own dreams and goals by using the rich talent with which the Lord has blessed you. As you look at your future, consider a life of service in the Church. Think seriously about taking at least a part of your life and giving it to other people in the name of our Lord and through the Church. Even more than that, consider priesthood, sisterhood and religious life. What a great contribution you could make to the world and God’s people! Have a great year in school. Do your best. Make your education have such a positive effect on you that other people in this world will benefit from you and your talent. In the meantime, in your daily prayers, pray for your vocation.

Serra for priestly and religious vocations
